

Nigel Henry's Bio

Nigel Henry is the founder of MasteryUnleashed a business and personal performance acceleration company, who's current mission is to ...

... "Activate and Unleash the Greatness in People"...

Nigel has more than 30 years combined experience in Software Engineering, Project Management, Business Development, Personal Development, and Spiritual Studies.

He is the creator of the Mastery Performance Activation System (MPAS), which is a set of high-performance tools, distinctions, and practices that allows Thinkers, Leaders, and Entrepreneurs to cause their ventures to flourish in a short period of time.

His clients include numerous small business owners, non-profit organization leaders, and corporations such as Chevron, Microsoft, GE Capital, CISCO Systems, Charles Schwab, Lawrence Livermore National Labs, The National Urban League, The City of Oakland, The SBA, and more ...

He now likes to be known as a Change Angel, Thought Leader, Activational Speaker, Author, Business Performance Engineer, and Mastery Performance Activator ...

Nigel's academic background includes a BSc in Electrical & Electronic Engineering and an MBA. He has authored several interactive BOOKS that supplement his teachings and his methodology including:

1. Unleashing Mastery Performance in Business
2. The 7 Levels Of Mastery Performance - A Master's Journey
3. The Gifts Of Negative Emotions
4. TURBO - The phenomena previously known as FEAR
5. The Virus that causes Masters to experience blindness and amnesia
6. The Royal Protocol - For Very Influential Leaders & Rulers

In these activational sessions, Nigel will be engaging us in a very deep, thoughtful, humorous, interactive inquiry into one or more of these intriguing topics ...
